By: Kenny Bishop

Jesus loves me the bible tells me so..

Even when they don't believe it
Even when they don't understand it
Even if we don't believe it

Why? How? Because the bible tells me so..

The longer I know him, the more I am convinced of HIS love for me

His grace is so much more than amazing to me

John 13:34-35 (NIV)

³⁴ "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. ³⁵ By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

Jesus said this - a new commandment I give you - Love one another as I have loved you
By this, everyone will know that you are my disciples if you Love one another

Sometimes it's not easy to Love one another - even when it is the one that we love

Sometimes it's hard to say "I love you" because you feel like the weaker - but in all actuality you just trumped everything

Even though we have days when we think or feel that we are unlovable - but HE always loves us

The proof that we are His disciples is that we love one another

The thing that will always attract people everywhere is the love - you gotta exhibit the love

When you see someone's need then they will know that they are loved

Don't just tell people that you love them - you gotta show them that you love them

How hollow would the words be for someone to say I will pray for you without showing them love -- offer a drink of water or your coat

You can tell them you love them but until you show them you care what have you done?

Every time you show people that you love them- I can see Jesus in heaven applauding saying you are loving them - just like I showed you.

Sometimes people will tell you I love you just to say the words, but there are people who really do care and want to love you

Yes, Jesus loves me

The Bible tells me so ..
